

NO TO RACE TYRANNY

In a 'you couldn't make this up if you tried' development comes the latest news under the state's notorious Race Relations laws designed to gag free speech. Angry mum Nancy Bennett has had her window display of china pigs seized by police — because they were 'offensive' to her Muslim neighbours.

Patriotic Nancy who also displayed red, white and blue bunting beside the pigs in her front window, is now facing a race-hate charge. Police obtained a search warrant to enter her home and confiscate the collection. They said local Muslims had complained that the figures were 'racially offensive' because they consider the animals unclean and do not eat pork.

Nancy — facing possible prosecution under the Public Order Act said: "I just couldn't believe it. The officers said they had to take everything in the window because it was evidence. All I could think of was that Muslims were offended because they don't eat bacon, but that's ridiculous. Vegetarians don't eat bacon and they haven't complained. I doubt the police would do anything even if they did."

Nancy, who fosters deprived children has suffered abuse from Muslim neighbours ever since Princess Diana's death when she put up the bunting. She said: "They started kicking my front door every day and spitting at the windows. It was disgusting, and I was terrified. They were threatening my 16-year-old son and trying to make my life hell. I told the police but they did nothing. Now someone complains about a bit of bunting and they come round straight away. It stinks." Leicester city councillor, John Mugglestone, backs Nancy and says the arrest is a disgrace. "Where were the police when she was suffering constant abuse? She should have been given protection, not charged."

Sadly, in today's Britain, this is all too par for the course. Last month's BN reported upon the Race trial of BNP head of Publicity, Nick Griffin. Nick had said: "Wanted more white children", published a picture of a Viking girl looking out to sea, and pointed out that not all immigrants are wonderful, and in much more sober language than the tabloids. The result? Nick was prosecuted and faced 2 years imprisonment. As it was, Nick walked out of court a free man but not without being found guilty and given a suspended sentence. Freedom of Speech? Democracy? Pull the other one, it stinks!

NICK GRIFFIN: Faced 2 years under the Race laws

The display of pigs is now illegal. Britain's 'democracy' is a tyranny!

NANCY BENNETT:
Showing off her new collection of china pigs. The publicity surrounding her case should ensure that the idea of prosecuting her is quietly dropped. Nevertheless, this is what Britain's tyrannical Race laws have now come to.

THE NEW TYRANNY

The story on page one perfectly encapsulates the way in which British people are now second class citizens in their own country. Non-whites can celebrate their cultures and get grants for doing so. British culture is being left to die out because it is 'embarrassing'. Christmas nativity plays are not performed because they might 'offend' minorities, yet no such inhibitions are shown when it comes to celebrating Diwali.

Non-whites get privileged treatment under the law, need not wear motorcycle crash helmets and can carry knives in public, something any white person would be prosecuted for. If a white boy is attacked by a black or an Asian, it is mere yobbery. But if a white boy attacks a black or an Asian it is 'racial' and can get a 2-3 year top-up to any sentence for a 'racially-aggravating' element.

Whites are also discriminated against in employment and promotion. Any look through the jobs vacant columns show black or Asian applicants only. Blacks and Asians are also picked out for rapid promotion. Whites are left behind and left out.

If whites are criticised, they must put up with it. If whites criticise non-whites it can be construed as racial hatred and a prison sentence could follow. This law against freedom of speech was designed specifically to gag justified criticism of immigration which pointed to its adverse effects. Now it is being used to silence any vestige of criticism at all of non-whites by whites. So you can criticise a Jew — but only if you're a Jew, otherwise you're an 'anti-Semite'. You can criticise blacks and Asians — but only if you're black or Asian otherwise you're a 'racist' and in either event, you're looking at 12-24 months in the state gulag.

There is a word to describe what is going on in modern Britain. It is tyranny. A tyranny used to facilitate the racist colonisation of Britain. The native people of Britain are having their culture suppressed, their land colonised and are being discriminated against on racial grounds.

It was, of course, the work of 'white racists'. Condon ordered officers to surrender to DNA profiling in the effort to track down the culprit.

Last month, police arrested an Asian policeman who had sent the 'keep the police force white' messages. Police are investigating the possibility that the officer was building up to a claim against the Elsewhere, a debt-ridden doctor, Mohammed Subbaba, faked an arson attack on his nursing home and tried to blame the national front. Running up £1 million in debts on business ventures, he started the fire to cash in on a £1 million insurance payout.

Subbaba soaked clothes with petrol, turned the gas on and set the electric fire to go on with a timer. The Aneurin nursing home in Caerphilly was to have gone up like a torch except that police arrived quickly, alerted by a Police, however, were not taken in and uncovered a bogus 'hate-crime'.

COOKE — THE PEOPLE VERSUS THE POLITICIANS

When evil child killer Sydney Cooke was released from prison at the beginning of April, the nation waited as to where the pervert would go. First it was a London police station — Cooke voluntarily moving in temporarily for his own safety.

Then he was moved and the panic began. At first it was thought, incorrectly as it turned out, that he'd gone to Cheshunt. Pickets of angry mums converged on the station for days before he turned up in Yeovil.

Spontaneous pickets took place outside the police station and a march took place against the sex-monster's presence. Yeovil MP, Paddy Ashdown denounced the protests and said: "This is a difficult and complex problem." Ashdown, who has chased the queer vote for years is now clearly after the paedophile vote as well!

Ashdown met the protesters but was shouted down repeatedly. He said: "Mr. Cooke has agreed to remain in police custody."

The hall erupted as people shouted: "Mister Cooke! Call him by his real name: Paedophile! Scum!"

One man yelled: "Why do you think he wants to stay in? Because we're here."

Afterwards Ashdown said the protesters were "misinformed."

Protest organiser Deborah Spencer, a mum of two said: "Mr. Ashdown had no answers for us. It is unbelievable." Another mum said: "We were not listened to, we have been talked

Wherever the rumour spread, the fury followed. Spontaneous demonstrations occurred at Bristol, Minehead and Bridgwater.

In Bristol, the picket degenerated into a riot as youths coming from pubs and fuelled by drink attacked Broadbury Road police station where Cooke was being kept. Police made several arrests.

In Bridgwater, Bristol Organiser Bruce Cowd single handedly turned up to leaflet the angry crowd with the party's popular anti-paedophile leaflet (see p6). Mums took big bundles from him and began to leaflet the crowd. Others took leaflets and were stopping cars in the street to leaflet the drivers as they slowed down to see what all the fuss was about.

From starting with just himself, the leaflet team expanded to six in just ten minutes. Shopkeepers displayed the leaflets in their windows and put more on counters for customers to take away with them. The feeling this issue generates is 100% in line with the party's tough stand on child molesters, capital punishment and the party's law and order stance generally.

In Yeovil and Cheshunt too, party activists have distributed several thousand anti-paedophile leaflets. ● Cooke has refused to tell Lavinia Tildesley where the grave of her murdered son is. Cooke, the ring leader of the paedophile gang which police believe murdered up to nine boys was released after only serving charges for manslaughter. But police 'know for a fact' that Cooke killed at least two others and probably up to seven more. Cooke's co-defendant Leslie Bailey swore that Cooke instigated and took part in the murders of 7-year-old Mark Tildesley and 6-year-old Barry Lewis in 1984 and 1985. The police found Mark's key ring in the back of Cooke's car, but Cooke was never prosecuted.

Protesters in Yeovil hit out at Lib-Dem MP Ashdown

Ashdown: Shouted down

My Wales

Green and priceless pastures, golden hills and vales,
the valley winding endlessly,
this is my cherished Wales,
a thousand myths and legends,
the dragons in our midst,
a land that's fit for heroes,
a thousand maidens kissed.

Chorus

My Wales, I will help you,
through this dire threat,
on Wales, my true love,
let the sun never set,
for Wales, I will defend you,
while you face such strife,
in Wales, I will stay forever,
for Wales, I pledge my life.

Powerful is her pull,
bewitched by Merlin's hand,
every Welshman's lonely,
when away from his homeland,
on crossing the border home,
he feels a tingle down his spine,

he'll keep this sense of belonging,
until the end of time.

Chorus

Were Camelot and King Arthur, a Celtic dream fantasy?
a clever lie to keep the enemy out,
and keep Wales alien free.

We hope our prayers are answered,
by the lady in the lake,
hand to us Excalibur,
for our kin and country's sake.

Chorus

The white dragon stirs again, after many centuries,
to safeguard its own land,
and help Celtic men live free.
Open up your eyes and listen,
to Arthur as he hails.
Be proud of your heritage,
and keep the passion for your Wales.

EQUAL CHANCE

Equal Chance is a personal development programme for minority ethnic staff in DfEE and ES. It was launched following the successful pilot project 'Careering Forward' and 27 participants started a year long programme in April 1997. The first programme is now reaching its conclusion and we are about to begin recruiting for a second intake later this year.

Background

The DfEE Board identified as a priority, the need to ensure the people from ethnic minorities have the same opportunities to develop as everyone else. Equal Chance is part of the Department's Equal Opportunities Strategy which works towards this goal, and is offered under the positive action provisions of the Race Relations Act 1976. At present, ethnic minority staff are under-represented at all grades above MPB7 across the Department.

Participants are encouraged to set and implement an

RSC PROMOTES GENOCIDE!

The Royal Shakespeare Company are promoting genocide through miscegenation. That is the aim of all race-mixing propaganda — to destroy the British as a homogenous racial entity. This evil and wicked aim is one step on the way to a one-world mish mash fulfilling the communist dream of 'equality'. It is the reason why it is no coincidence that every white country in the world with no exception has coloured immigrants.

Those immigrants' races and cultures, just like those of the whites, are victims to be destroyed by multi-racialism — all in the name of 'equality', 'love' and 'brotherhood'.

At the end of March, activists from Nottingham and Leicester BNP mounted a leafleting operation at the King Edward VII Sports Centre in Melton Mowbray, Leics. The leaflet (right) was a protest against the opening night of the Royal Shakespeare Company's tour of Romeo and Juliet with the casting of a black actor as Romeo.

The leaflet put the case against using Shakespeare as a platform for disgusting multi-racial propaganda very well. National newspaper theatre critics, local media and broadcasters were mailed with the leaflet simultaneously, along with 200 people being leafleted outside Melton's Sports Centre.

The short UK tour is followed by an international one finishing in Verona, home of the original warring

Royal Shakespeare Company— PROMOTING GENOCIDE?

THE UNITED Nations Genocide Convention acknowledges that the crime of genocide can be committed without the direct physical extermination of a national or ethnic group. Anything which causes "serious bodily or mental harm to members of the group" is also an act of genocide, as is "imposing measures intended to prevent births within the group."

Shakespeare is rightly viewed as the national bard of the English people, and as one of the pillars of European culture. His Romeo and Juliet is set in the unmistakably European setting of the late mediaeval Italian nobility. Shakespeare's Romeo and Juliet may be lovers from different families, but they are both of the same, European, stock. Yet the RSC has turned them into yet another piece of propaganda for the multi-racialism which threatens the very existence of the people of Britain, and of every other European nation.

Giving a political message which Shakespeare did not intend (and, as a consciously proud Englishman, would have opposed) by the multi-racial casting of the ill-fated pair is a deliberate affront to him. He must be spinning in his grave. Furthermore, because being of white, European heritage is an integral part of being English, this production will confuse and demoralise its younger viewers. This propaganda is designed to deny young people the right to identify with their own forebears and intended to tear us from our roots. If that is not going to cause serious mental harm to our people, what is?

Similarly, the promotion of inter-racial sex by every section of the national mass media, and by the casting and advertising of this production, is so relentless that it can only be described as the imposition of a measure "intended to prevent births within the group." That, after all, is the inevitable result of propaganda which encourages relationships and births outside the group.

By denying our youngsters pride in their own ethnic identity, distorting the work of our national bard, and promoting miscegenation, this production is another attack on the future survival of the indigenous culture and people of this country. This is genocide!

In the Stockyard Inn, one elderly farmer was overheard saying: "This is the beginning of the end of cattle farming in this country." Another cattleman told the BNP activists that when all the livestock markets are gone, the greedy supermarkets would be able to dictate any price they like.

The farming crisis is a good opportunity for members up and down our nation to get out to rural districts and distribute party literature to country folk, which explains how they've been let down by successive governments and how the BNP would put things right.

CURRYWATCH

All curry fans can only sit and cheer the good news that curry has now taken over from fish and chips as the nation's favourite dish, mirroring the takeover elsewhere. Now, news comes that not only is curry good to eat, but it is also effective against yobboes who abuse curry waiters! Plucky Bodar Uddin hurled a plate of curry into the face of boozed up curry fan, Chris Astley from Tenby, S. Wales, and sent him fleeing in tears in search of hospital treatment. Currywatch gives this news only cautious backing, however, since the EU dictators might try to have curry reclassified as a noxious substance.

Currywatch is taking up the cudgels against the EU as red tape threatens yet another favourite British culinary tradition — Bombay Duck. The EU's food and drink commissioner, little EU hitler, Franz Fischler, has decided that this connoisseurs dish made from dried bummalo fish is a "filthy health hazard." Flies crawling on the fish whilst drying in the sun was one of the complaints made against this delicacy along with the fish coming from a polluted river in the first place. But what of it? Doesn't this cretin realise that Bombay Duck is deep fried and most of the harmful bacteria are probably killed off?

● After all the lies perpetuated about curry houses, Islington council have ordered restaurateur Mofakharul Shahin to treat his new brick work with soot or face court action. The council claims the new bricks don't blend in with the old ones. Perhaps this example of curry cleanliness will silence those who claim curry houses to be a hot bed of vermin infestation. It's not true!

● In a concerted blow to the curry trade, health inspectors the length and breadth of the land are shutting takeaways on spurious 'health' grounds. In Stockport, an Indian takeaway, the Nooria, has been closed on environmental grounds after health inspectors found an "appalling" infestation of rats and dead flies in the spices. Health hitler, Donald Cameron said: "It was appalling. It's one of the worst premises our officers have come across in the last few years. Officers found loads of rat droppings and closed it down there and then." Currywatch believes this case to be a 'fit up' since it is well known that health inspectors carry pocket-fulls of rat and mice droppings along with dead flies and cockroaches to plant on unlucky takeaways.

In Dewsbury, Kirklees Council obtained an emergency prohibition order against Khan Food Store until its owner, Mrs. Parveen Aktar took steps to remove a rat infestation. Food safety specialist, Garry Pearson, said he found rats' droppings and gnawed holes in the floor. He said the rats had come from the sewer through a disused toilet outside and got into the food storeroom through a tunnel.

And in London, the Houda supermarket's owners Youssef Benyheha and Said Laboid of Kensington & Chelsea were fined nearly £4,000 and stung for more than £1,400 in legal costs after pleading guilty to offences related to poor hygiene and unsafe premises under the Food Safety Regulations 1995 and the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974.

● Scottish Lolitas are reported to be plaguing hard working tandoori chefs. Unlucky Safir Uddin was jailed for three months and called a curry monster for removing a teenager's clothes and fondling her. The girl was working part time at the Mazir Tandoori in Irvine, Ayrshire (clearly to get close to the chef) when Uddin said that the girl almost forced herself on him. Incredibly the judge refused to believe the amorous effects of curry cuisine and banged Uddin up for three months. Uddin's family have had to flee the area and Safir has had to register on the paedophile list. ● Husamettin Akpinar, owner of the Donner Kebab takeaway in Barry, S. Wales is out of pocket by £5,000 after heartless magistrates fined him £500 for each of nine offences relating to food hygiene along with £500 costs. The prosecution alleged that bleach contaminated food, the ceiling was flaking into the food, the walls were bulging, there was a double sink with no wash basin, the chill cabinet wasn't cold enough to store food and raw juices including blood were found to be running into the salad. Mice droppings were also found along with food debris on the floor.

Currywatch believes that there is clearly a conspiracy at work to undermine one of the success stories of modern multi-racial Britain — the curry out. BN's resident currywatcher says: "Don't let these stories put you off." Courageous curry fans everywhere should support their local curry out.

RACE-HATE ATTACK PUTS BOY IN HOSPITAL

Thirty Asian youths attacked a single 15-year-old schoolboy with belts in a ferocious racial attack which left the boy needing hospital treatment. The white lad was walking along Stepney Way, Tower Hamlets when the racist gang began hurling insults at him screaming "You white bastard", before rushing forward to attack him. One hit young James Johnson over the head with a bottle while the others took off their belts and began whipping him on his back and chest. Police have called the incident a racially motivated attack. The area's black MP, Oona King, who ignored white voters during the borough's council elections on May 7, but fawned over the Asians going to was approached from behind before being hit over the head by the gang sustaining head injuries. The next, a 16-year-old was attacked an hour later in all likelihood by the same gang and was punched about the head and face causing cuts and bruising. Another 16-year-old was attacked by a group of six thugs and suffered a broken jaw. As said before, it's not just young lads that are taking the brunt of the race-hate attacks against whites, women are suffering too. Last month, two women were attacked and were robbed by a six-strong Asian gang in the middle of the day. DC Dave Boon of Oldham CID said: "This must have been a terrifying experience for these two young women, as it would be for anyone confronted by such a gang."

● Another race-hate attack, this time in Sheffield saw a mother and her baby nearly die when a 15-strong Asian mob threw stones at passing cars driven by whites. Vicky Smith, 27, said the only motive that she could see was a racial one. She was forced to stop her car after narrowly avoiding crashing. After getting out of the car, she was punched in the face by one of the gang. Brave Vicky recognised one of the gang and said that she would be prepared to formally identify him if caught. She said: "It was an Asian gang and the only explanation I can give is that it was a racially motivated one."

Labour sleaze

Tony Blair knew the identity of his 'blind trust' donors. That's the claim of Dr. Henry Drucker. Drucker was employed by Labour to attract big donors for the Labour party in the run-up to the General Election. At Lord Neill's enquiry into party funding he called the blind trusts 'evil' and said: "I don't think that these people would have given a bean unless there were enough nods and winks that Tony was, of course, very grateful." Since the election, a clutch of 'blind trust' donors have been rewarded with peerages.

Independent MP, Martin Bell called for campaign funding to be limited to £2 million. He told Lord Neill's enquiry into party funding: "We have to end the arms race of campaign funding because it opens the door to at least the suspicion of influence, buying and selling. I have lived and worked long enough in the US to see the system there, which I think is almost openly corrupt."

Earlier, BBC

Newsnight journalist Michael Crick accused the main political parties of "persistent and systematic fraud" by regularly spending in excess of the official spending limits.

● Millionaire media tycoon Rupert Murdoch popped into Prime Minister Blair's Downing Street home last month for a 'private chat'. The last time they spoke, Blair trotted off to ask Italian Premier, Prodi the likely reaction to a Murdoch bid for a chunk of Italian TV. Polly Toynbee, a Guardian political columnist has called Murdoch's association with Blair's government 'sinister and secret'.

Interestingly, Labour whips ensured that Murdoch's predatory pricing newspaper war was left unchecked in the Competition Bill which went through Parliament at its second reading.

Race gang in 'whip' attack on schoolboy

A 15-year-old schoolboy was taken to hospital after around 30 Asian youths whipped him with their belts during a vicious attack.

James Johnson was on his way to a friend's house when the assault happened at about 8pm last Wednesday evening.

He was walking along Stepney Way when a gang of about 30 Asian youths in Stepney Green park began hurling abuse.

James then reported the youths calling out to him, "you white bastard" before racing forward and attacking him.

One hit James over the head with a bottle while others took off their belts and began whipping him across the back and chest.

A friend found the lad after the terrifying ordeal and took him back to his home in Bromley Street. James' mum, Rainer, took him to the Royal London Hospital in Whitechapel later in the evening when he began being sick.

Rainer said: "He was absolutely terrified and he is still suffering from shock."

"He's been off school since it happened and he's gone to stay with his nan because he doesn't want to stay here now."

She added: "I'm really angry; James can't walk around here because of the things that are going on."

He suffered bruising to the head and nose and his back and chest were covered in welts from the brutal beating.

The police are treating the attack as a racial incident.

POLITICIANS SAY 'STUFF THE PEOPLE' AND VOTE NO TO HANGING

In a little publicised vote in the House of Commons, MPs decided by 294 to 136, a 158 majority, to adopt provisions in the European Convention of Human Rights outlawing capital punishment.

The broad mass of the people have consistently been in favour of reintroducing the death penalty for murder for years, but the politicians have contemptuously refused to listen. In free vote after free vote, the politicians have ignored the people. These are the same politicians that are whining that they need to retain their constituency link to remain 'close to the people' in any change of electoral process. What a farce. Strange there have been no official commemorations to mark the silver anniversary of Britain joining what is now the EU. Maybe no-one feels like celebrating since our membership has been a political and economic disaster.

MULTI-RACIALISM DOESN'T WORK!

Race-mixer, Natalie Doble probably never grew to know that her race-mixing marriage to Korean, Jong Rhee was a mistake since he killed her to collect an insurance pay-out. Rhee was a gambler who didn't want his losses to be discovered by his wealthy wife, Natalie. Having blown £93,000 in just three months, he took out two ten-year policies on her life totalling £150,000.

Rhee had once before got away with murder when he was acquitted of murdering Jovan Wong by cutting his throat. His defence of 'finding' the body was accepted, even though his forensic examination of his jacket showed it had been 'sprayed with blood'.

Eight days after the insurance policies on the life of his wife became active, Rhee persuaded her to take a vacation in Wales, despite having just returned from a fortnight's scuba diving in the Indian Ocean. He started a fire with petrol and raised the alarm when there was no hope of rescue. Judge Justice Ebsworth called it: "A cold blooded murder... a wicked crime."

After the fire, Rhee had said to police officers: "She always wanted to be cremated." and, "I've never liked white girls and now I'm burying one."

genuine so that he can come to Britain. Rene's family have given her the cold shoulder and no wonder. BN remembers a saying. Something about 'there's no fool like an old fool'.

● Old white race-mix pervert Brian Clegg who scandalised the country last year by getting himself a 'mail-order' bride — who promptly left him when she found he was too stingy — has told reporters that he is now in contact with a 'Ugandan lady'. Clegg's unsavoury activities seem to consist of offering young foreign women the chance of a better life in Britain by marrying him. It's all too suggestive of a park pervert offering sweets to little boys. BN supposes it's too much to ask that sicko Clegg contracts Ebola?

OLDHAM UPDATE

In April, British Nationalist revealed that three out of every four victims of racial attack in Oldham are white, almost invariably attacked by racist Asians. The Oldham Evening Chronicle was forced to carry the story and Chief Superintendent Eric Hewitt said: "There is evidence that they [Asian Muslims] are trying to create exclusive areas for themselves. We have experience of comments such as: 'Whites keep out.' Anyone seems to be a target if they are white and they are vulnerable. We have even had mothers pushing prams under attack."

Since then, BNP activists have distributed a number of specially produced local leaflets for Oldham on this topic showing how Oldham whites can bring these disgusting and cowardly attacks to an end. While support for the party's message has been exceptionally good, the 'news' to get in the Chronicle's headlines was of a stupid graffiti attack on a heavily Asian school by white morons which included anti-Asian abuse and swastikas. What was that supposed to solve? All it did was to gift the traitors of Britain a propaganda coup. The enemies of white people in Britain — the Labour party and the extreme left were quick to organise a public meeting 'deploring' the vandalism and, of course, 'racism' — meaning white racism. No mention of the race-hate attacks against white people, or Asian racism, just a condemnation of 'racist graffiti'. It is no surprise that arch race-traitor

Glyn Ford, the area Euro-MP spoke at the meeting. Mr. Ford has a passionate hatred of everything pro-British. Meeting organiser, lefty Sue Bond said without apparent irony that there are: 'a bunch of extremist thugs in Oldham'. She was referring to the warriors with spraycans, not the race-hate attackers who beat people up.

This episode shows the importance of a political response to the problems which confront our people. When three out of four victims of racial attack are white, there is clearly a reservoir of support for the BNP. It just needs tapping and developing — showing local people that the BNP is a responsible party with the answers to the problems that crop up in their daily lives.

It also shows how irrelevant and counter-productive is the kind of non-political stupidity that led to the left's propaganda coup.

ALL WHITES ARE RACIST!

Penny McConnell, sister of Asian MP for Leicester Keith Vaz, has been told by an industrial tribunal that she was the victim of 'subconscious racism'. McConnell took Leicester City Council to court after being passed over for promotion. The ruling is a landmark decision and means that whites accused of 'racism' are automatically guilty, with no need for any evidence. As the tribunal said: "We know such feelings can be subconscious and ones which a person may not be able to accept or recognise."

Letters

Write to: The Editor, British Nationalist, PO Box 117, Welling, Kent DA16 3DW.

Sir,
I have pleasure in renewing my subscription to British Nationalist, the only broadsheet that expresses the views the majority of the indigenous population will agree with privately, but fear to state publicly. This is a land that has no right to call itself 'free' any longer.
G. Bobby,
Kent.

Sir,
I just thought I would drop you a line to say how much I look forward to receiving British Nationalist and Spearhead each month. The breadth of articles covered expressing passionate and backable views is an inspiration. I joined the BNP last year after many years of seeing my country decline. I wasn't sold on the mumblings of the establishment parties and so I decided to contact the British National Party. Since then, I've never looked back!

On a more sober note, I believe that we will only go mainstream if we appeal more to white collar workers. Skinhead images are not helpful as this is a violent image which repels voters.

Mark Gregson,
Cheshire.

Editorial reply: The BNP has, for some time now, been embarked on a task of wooing all sections of our society — white collar and blue collar. The traditional image of nationalism (courtesy of the media) being full of skinheads is a false one. How many skinheads helped out the party's election campaign last month? Not many at all, though the one or two that did were welcome and for the following reason: The party knows full well that a skinhead image is not helpful in trying to win over the bulk of our people. But so too do skinheads! Therefore, what skinheads do attend party activities 'dress down'. When dressed down, they become just more young men. And young men able to defend party activities from the possible attentions of red thugs will always be needed.

Sir,
I enclose various clippings from the Oldham Evening Echo. The news relating to assaults on white people by Asians has mostly stopped coming through. Either the police are not informing the paper or the paper is under instructions not to report such attacks.

B. Dobby,
Manchester.

Sir,
a few decades ago, this country attracted people from abroad who had something to offer society, be it a skill or some much needed experience in a particular field. In return they received better opportunities for advancement and an improvement in their standard of living.

However, immigrants nowadays have nothing constructive to offer at all. They rarely have the decency to learn the English language, they clog up our housing waiting lists, rely on our health service for medical treatment and claim our state benefits. You can be sure that if the money ran out, these so-called refugees would soon seek refuge elsewhere. 'Asylum seekers' are nothing but parasites. Why do they all have to settle here?

P. Woodland,
Kent.

Sir,
just a few lines to express my disgust at the recent events in Ulster. First of all, there were the triumphant scenes on TV of Sinn Fein's IRA conference in Dublin for which the government let out an IRA terrorist just for the weekend. Tony Blair said he had nothing to do with it, Mo Mowlam said she was sorry!

Then came news that London had voted for a new Mayor and that it could be Ken Livingstone that gets the job. A man who in the past has expressed his support for the IRA — the same IRA that has blown a sizeable part of London to bits. Has the country gone mad?

M. Wilson,
Ulster.

Sir,
I am writing this letter having seen your April edition and the 'homosexual threat to our children' story. I am glad the writer draws a distinction between normal men and sodomites because part of the sodomite lobby's programme is to convince us that sodomy is an alternative lifestyle. What I object to though is the use of the word 'gay' in no less than five different places, even though it is used in inverted commas. These people are not 'gays' but sexual perverts. What these wretches need is a clear call to repentance.

E. Atkinson,
Norfolk.

BN BRIEFING

POOR UK FOOTSEU BILL

The UK is the 4th poorest country in the EU, but the 2nd largest contributor to EU funds.

PERVERT DIES

Justin Fashanu, the black homosexual footballer who once said that just because a person was homosexual didn't mean that they would leap upon someone, fled the US after being charged with sexual assault. A student woke up to find Fashanu performing a sexual act upon him. Fashanu hanged himself last month in E. London.

LAB-LIB-CON SELL OUTS

The London European Society exists to 'advance the cause of a united Europe'. Honorary Presidents (ie. those who would sell Britain out to Europe) include Pauline Green, Socialist group leader in Brussels, Ted Heath, Roy Hattersley, Paddy Ashdown, Geoffrey Howe, Tony Blair and William Hague.

ISLAMOPHOBIA

A conference on Islamophobia at Kings College, London ended in chaos after Raza Griffiths gave the 'wrong' answer to a question about homosexuals. He said: "I couldn't believe the death threats and the abuse from the crowd. I think they wanted to kill me. Their behaviour reinforced the very stereotypes of Muslims the conference was set up to counter."

AMERICA — A WHITE LAND

Genetic scientists have found that the first inhabitants of North America were White, not Indian. Kennewick Man found in 1996 on the banks of the river Columbia, Washington has been dated to more than 9,000 years old. Indians have found the discovery embarrassing because it means whites and not Indians are the original inhabitants of America and Indians who migrated to America from Asia and encountered the peaceful whites wiped them out.

The killers of all these children were either known or convicted paedophiles — like dozens of other child-killers. How many more must die before something is done? LEAFLET MEDIA DYNAMITE!

ANTI-PAEDOPHILE LEAFLET

The issue of paedophilia or child molesters to give them their common name is big news around the country. This is the leaflet to set the topic alight and give any BNP branch almost guaranteed publicity with the party's strong, yet popular stance of advocating capital punishment for the sex killers.

COUNTRYSIDE LEAFLET

The Countryside leaflet makes the point that country folk are under attack just as are townies, and the party spells out its policies to regenerate the countryside, provide jobs and maintain the rural way of life.

Both these A4, 2-sided, single colour leaflets are priced at £10 per thousand and with postal charges of £6.40/1,000 and £8.55/2,000.

THEME-PARK BRITAIN

How 'politically correct' townies are killing our country

ANOTHER farmhouse lies derelict, either to fall down or to become a yuppie weekend cottage. Yet another family swallowed up in the city, while more and more farms every year are taken over by city speculators, while village schools, pubs and shops become holiday homes. Rural Britain has been systematically neglected and depopulated by a system based on city 'values' and short-term greed. What has this got to do with Field Sports? Everything!

Our masters in Westminster and the media have forgotten that a healthy countryside is the backbone of a nation. Their only concern is to preserve a few pretty bits as a summer theme park and tourist trap. The idea of a rural Britain which stands on its own feet, with its own industries, traditions and sports actually frightens our urban masters, because it doesn't need them. They need our taxes, but rural Britain doesn't need the parasites in parliament. Whitehall and the TV studios. But people who don't need their 'help' make these power-junkies uneasy. That's why they love the 'underprivileged, multi-racial inner-cities' and it's why they hate the real people of rural Britain.

That's the real reason for their attack on country sports. Animal 'welfare' doesn't come into it. If it did, they'd do something about the scandal of halal and kosher ritual slaughter, whereby hundreds of thousands of animals every year are slowly led to death without any pre-stunning, in ways which would land any other slaughterman in prison. But the Labour Party and most 'animal welfare' fanatics turn a blind eye to this 'religious' savagery, just as they ignore the huge numbers of lambs taken by foxes and badgers. After all, cuddly foxes are politically correct, whereas native Britons, and our traditions and livelihoods don't count. We only built this country, we only pay the taxes — so we don't count!

As a matter of fact, the masters of urbanised Britain don't give a damn about foxes either. If they did, they wouldn't be so keen to condemn them to slow death by poison, habitat-destruction and gangrene from bullet wounds (where are they going to find 'marksmen' in a country where they've outlawed target shooting?). What they really care about is destroying our identity, our sense of belonging, our nationhood. To hundreds of thousands of Britons, their sense of identity is inextricably bound up with hunting or other field sports — that's why they're the latest target.

That's also why weather forecasters don't use temperatures which actually mean something any more. That's why you can't buy pre-packed potatoes for the pound any more. That's why the county regiments have been amalgamated out of existence. That's why our kids come home from school knowing more about 'colonial exploitation' in Africa than about our own history. That's why TV soaps portray homosexual perversion as acceptable, even preferable. That's why our cities (because British people there are targets too) have been filled with hideous tower blocks and with strangers from every part of the globe. That's why our political and economic freedoms are being submerged in a European super-state. That's why they won't leave anything alone.

What we are facing is the organised destruction of our identity and freedoms by an out-of-touch but immensely powerful political and media elite. It can only be stopped, let alone reversed, when large numbers of ordinary Britons unite and organise to resist and reverse the process — when we British organise to take back control of our own country. That's the purpose of the British National Party.

STOPLABOUR'S ATTACK ON THE WELFARE STATE

Single colour, single sided A5 leaflet attacking Labour where it hurts. This is the leaflet that stakes the party's claim to inherit the mantle of the guardian of blue collar workers from a Labour party that has abandoned them.

STOP THE RACE ATTACKS!

This single colour, single sided A5 leaflet slams all race attacks, but focuses on the wave of race-hate attacks against white people and which the politicians are ignoring. Only the BNP is speaking up against the race attacks!

Price for both A5 leaflets is £5.00 per 1,000 plus £5.15 p&p for 1,000 and £5.80 for 2,000.

ELECTION '98

This outstanding video was put out in three of the party's best seats for May's council elections. The local media and opposition were appalled at this video initiative as they recognised what a powerful propaganda medium it is. Feedback suggests that the video worked well as a canvassing tool and persuaded otherwise uncommitted voters to vote BNP. Get your copy for just £6.50 post free.

VOTE BNP

For the first time, the British National Party is taking advantage of the video revolution to bring its message into your drawing room!

This short film has been made in support of BNP candidates in the coming local government elections in East London. Some candidates and one ordinary voter are featured in the film talking about the important local issues on which the BNP will be fighting — issues which the Labour, Tory and LibDem parties prefer to ignore.

Also included in the film is the party election broadcast made by BNP leader John Tyndall, which was shown to the whole nation just before the general election of May 1997. If you missed this, now's your chance to see it!

Because some households in your ward will not have a video player, we are not putting a copy of this video into every home. If you don't have a player, please pass the video on to a neighbour you know who has. If you do have one, please still pass the video on after you have played it to your family. We want the very maximum number of people to get this very important message!

THE 'SILENT MAJORITY' FINDS ITS VOICE AGAIN!

'SILENT BRITAIN' is waking up! We're sick of decades of being ignored, misused, lied up in red tape and seeing our 'values' on the periphery of the nation's attention. Now Labour's 'values' are on the front page, on the green left, on cottage hospitals and on our children's rights to a traditional education are just the first signs. Middle Britain has had enough of being quiet, enough of being quiet and enough of being quiet. We're through with silence, we're organising to DEMAND a fair deal for country people and country traditions. Middle Britain is awake!

STOP LABOUR'S ATTACK ON THE WELFARE STATE!

Last year, many people voted Labour to rid the country of the Tories and bring an end to their corruption and the misery they imposed. Many hoped that Labour would reverse the cuts that the Tories had made. Now, millions have been disillusioned as it has become apparent that Labour will simply follow the Tories' heartless policies even more brutally. They are getting away with it in a way that the Tories never could, simply because they are Labour.

Old folk have seen hopes of a fairer pension dashed with yet another Labour 'review'. Instead, they were given a £20 stop over the winter to keep them quiet. The scandal is that, since Thatcher broke the earnings-related link with pensions, pensioners are now down £23 per week. OAPs must wonder whether they really did finish on the winning side in the war, when Germany can trust its old folk so much better.

LABOUR'S BROKEN PROMISES

After breaking their promises to pensioners, Labour put the boot into students hoping for a decent education. Labour says that students must take on crippling debt if they want to go on to university. The Labour politicians who say this have already had their free education!

Showing their contempt for ordinary people even further, Labour are punishing widowed and abandoned single parents by confiscating their benefits. The next on the hit-list are the genuinely sick and disabled or sickness benefit. Labour hope that cutting the pittance of these people will rake in even more money than attacking single mums. Welfare to work, is all very well, but there have to be viable jobs in the workplace!

For many who voted 'New Labour', the penny is starting to drop. 'New Labour' = Old Tories. Tony Blair is Tony Blair. Labour are the Tory Party in disguise! The Labour party have abandoned ordinary working people. Labour are more interested in 'gay', 'ethnic' and their rich money-bags backers. The British National Party says it's time to stop wasting millions on over-paid advisory committees stuffed with Labour councillors, on bogus asylum-seekers and on foreign-hand handouts. The BNP says: stop the cuts and put our own people FIRST!

STOP THE RACE ATTACKS!

A White boy lies in a coma close to death on a life support machine because politicians have forced an unwelcome multi-racialism upon us with all the violence that entails.

Little Daniel Moore, aged 12, was attacked by a gang of 20 racist Asians armed with bricks, bottles and lumps of wood. He had been playing football with two friends when the 20 older youths chased the three, screaming: "You pieces of white trash! Poor Daniel couldn't get away and stood no chance as the 20 battered him near to death. It wouldn't be acceptable if whites had attacked an Asian boy and this attack is not acceptable either. While the media took up the story, there was no linking of this attack to others showing a definite trend of attacks against whites. Only four months before this, an eight-year-old in Halifax was racially attacked by three older Asians who beat him, set him on fire and ran off laughing. At the same time in London, 15 white boys playing football, aged 14-16, were attacked by 20 older Asians armed with knives, bottles and axes. More Asians joined in to ensure that the boys could not escape, and horrific injuries were inflicted. There is a clear conspiracy of silence in the media about these and other attacks. LAST YEAR FEWER THAN FOUR WHITES WERE MURDERED BECAUSE OF THE COLOUR OF THEIR SKIN: Christopher Farrell, Andrew Stevenson, Mark Sharp and Danny Westmacott. But the media only talk about the murder of black Stephen Lawrence. Don't white victims count? Is the BNP the only group speaking up for white people and against the violence? Yes! But you'll not be reading that in the controlled media!

The BNP says: stop the racial attacks — ALL OF THEM!

Culture being dismembered by trendy teachers

I find idea of India Day quite offensive

Dear Sir, I FEEL I must write to you to complain of the nature of the article in your edition of the Bedworth Echo dated 19.3.98 (issue 976) concerning India Day at Bedworth School by Penny Cryer.

Myself and a lot of people that I have spoken to find this article quite offensive, in teaching our children ethnic culture and religion when we should be teaching our children our own cultures and religion.

I must ask myself if we had our own cultural week and asked the ethnic children to dress as Viking, Saxon, Jute, Angles, Norman, Romans, would they do so? I think not, as this would not be politically correct. We are currently second class people in our own country, whilst our children are having ethnic culture being thrust down their throats.

I challenge you to do your own survey and ask the children of this school and Bedworth if they know when St. George's Day is or when the queen's birthday is. These are the values which our ancestors were taught and what made this country. But we are standing about watching our country and our cultures being dismembered by so called 'Trendy Teachers'.

As a finishing statement I ask you this, how long will it be before our female gender are told to wear veils on their faces to comply with some ethnic cultures.

John Ashworth,
Country and Warwickshire
British National Party Press Officer.

Politicians take little notice of demonstrations

NOW that there is a lull in demonstrations, it appears to be an opportune moment to tell those who blockade harbours, dump fish on pavements, milk cows in Downing Street, pay bridge tolls with pennies or generally parade the streets carrying placards, that the politicians at Westminster pay little heed to such antics.

They have no need to, for they know full well that, come the next general election, at least 90% of the demonstrators will vote for one or other of the main parties, and so the same-old political system will continue intact; whether Blair, Hague or Ashdown leads the next government being of no consequence whatsoever.

The only time in the past decade that they really sat up and took notice was when, in an obscure local council by-election in the East End of London, voters elected a Nationalist candidate from outside the party game. This event caused consternation, not just among the party politicians but, more significantly, among their financial backers.

Needless to say, they all got together and by tactical voting unseated the Nationalist at the next election. But it showed the way forward. And I suggest that next time the good folk here in the South West want to indicate their displeasure at the Government of the day, they do not bother to take to the streets, but stay at home and calmly announce that their union or association will be sponsoring a Nationalist candidate at the next election. They will find it to be a far more effective way of getting their complaint addressed.

RURAL SUPPORT FOR BNP IN BANBURY

Banbury Livestock Market, the largest in Britain, is to close this month never to reopen. The market has occupied the same site since 1925. Cattle, sheep and pigs have been sold in Banbury for well over a thousand years and the market was even mentioned in the Domesday Book, the original being close to the historic Banbury Cross, made famous by the nursery rhyme.

On hearing of the news, several BNP activists from the instant response group arrived on market day to hand out copies of British Countryman and were met with a warm welcome by farmers and drovers, most whom have been trading in the market for generations. All the folk spoken to agreed that the price squeeze by large supermarket chains (none of the savings of which have been passed on to consumers), the BSE scare and even animal rights campaigners, were the main

FIVE New Groups Formed!

This month, BN takes great pleasure in announcing five new groups of the party. The new BNP groups are in Leeds South, York, Ulster, Calderdale and Cornwall.

Leeds South covers the Morley General Election seat the party contested last year and has been functioning as an unregistered group for some time. This group is reportedly already close to Branch status in its own right under the very able leadership of Chris Morley.

York BNP is headed by John Brayshaw and is the smallest of the party's new groups, the first task of which is to get the widely scattered BNP support in the area together.

Calderdale BNP is the third new group announced in Yorkshire this month and is tipped to expand rapidly over the next year.

Robert Westlake is the new Cornwall group Organiser and has already produced a local leaflet 'Cornwall Fight Back!' to a storm of publicity in the county (more news on that next month).

Finally, the party has a new group in Ulster, which has already held its first meeting with ten people present.

SOUTH WEST BNP — ALL SYSTEMS GO!

West Country activists from Plymouth, Cornwall and Somerset descended on Plymouth city centre for a Day of Action by way of a paper sale and a mass leaflet drive — the first in the city for several years.

Starting in the morning, the West Country team held a paper sale outside a busy shopping centre while simultaneously giving out the popular 'Buy British Beef' leaflet to passing shoppers. Also handed out was a locally produced leaflet highlighting Plymouth's unemployment crisis, entitled 'Plymouth job losses — who's to blame?' This leaflet met with lots of thumbs up and favourable comments from the general public. A market trader with a George Cross flag draped over his stall bought a copy of British Nationalist after reading a leaflet and a farmer likewise bought a copy of British Countryman. He stopped to chat and said how good it was to see ordinary British patriots standing up for British farmers and their endangered livelihoods, as French patriots do for their farmers. Later that afternoon, the BNP team leafleted homes all over the city and many mothers out pushing prams cheered the party workers on as they handed

BNP activity team travelled to Plymouth and Newton Abbot to sample fine ciders and distribute thousands of leaflets out the popular anti-paedophile leaflet. One young mum called out: "You're right, they should hang the b@$*!@%#$."

All in all, more than 2,500 homes were leafleted with approximately 5,500 leaflets given out in a multi-drop as well as selling 14 copies of BN.

After the days activities, activists enjoyed a well earned rest in a local hostelry and agreed to form a new group in Cornwall as well as reorganising Devon BNP to make it more Plymouth orientated.

Two weeks later, another Day of Action was held in Trago Mills, Newton Abbot when party activists handed out 1,000 anti-paedophile leaflets to an enthusiastic response from local shoppers before moving on to the town centre and distributing another thousand along with the party's 'Buy British Beef' leaflet. A number of British Nationalists and British Countryman's were also sold in another good day out for the party as West Country activists spread the party's message far and wide.

BNP PUBLICITY

When BNP members leafleted Swansea, they didn't realise the storm of publicity that might follow it. The key to the party's current growth and publicity is its new focus on issues other than race. Newspapers still characterise the party primarily in terms of race even when the main focus of the party's message is economic, as the clipping from The Western Mail (below), distributed in Wales shows.

Like the Inverness Courier (see p8), The Western Mail was sufficiently worried to run an editorial against the party. The panic is evident.

HATE CAMPAIGN: Poverty-trap farmers wooed

Racist groups target Wales for recruits

COLETTE HUME

FAR-RIGHT racist groups are targeting some of the most vulnerable communities in Wales for recruits, it was revealed last night.

Groups like the British National Party and the Ku Klux Klan are hoping to cash in on growing discontent among farmers facing the collapse of their industry and people trapped by poverty in towns across Wales.

Meanwhile, the National Farmers' Union in Wales has expressed concern about the news that BNP activists have leafleted farmers in South-East and Mid Wales. Earlier this year the union learned of failed attempts by activists to recruit farmers at Welshpool market.

Nick Griffin, Wales spokesman for the British National Party, attempted yesterday to distance his party from the activities in Swansea. He said the Ku Klux Klan presented an inaccurate parody of nationalist views.

"The BNP has no time whatsoever for the KKK and in fact it is the view of party members that KKK activities might actually be organised by opponents of the BNP," he said.

Meanwhile, evidence is growing that the BNP is targeting beef farmers in Wales. Farmers in Monmouthshire and the Welsh border have been approached by BNP supporters. Activists have also targeted markets.

In a leaflet focusing on the agricultural crisis the group says, "Yesterday it was the miners and the steelworkers; today it's the farmers and the fishermen; tomorrow it could be you. So make a stand for Britain." NFU spokesman Keith Jones said, "We would not want any association with groups that cause groups in society grave distress."

Note that one of the party's most used telephone numbers — for Tower Hamlets has been discontinued and that the party's Black Country branch has two new numbers — one for Sandwell and Dudley and one for the Wolverhampton area.

FREE copy of British Countryman. A new publication speaking up for farmers, fishermen and the countryside. Stop cheap imports and overbuilding on green belt land. Write to: The Secretary, P.O. Box 1240, Bristol BS99 2TD

This advert was placed in a free paper in the West Country for just a few pounds. Free sheets reach thousands. Every branch, group, or individual could do it.

BNP ON ELECTION TRAIL AGAIN!

Bexley & Dartford BNP fresh from an energetic election campaign in May have already launched themselves into the fray in a council by-election! Sitting Tory Councillor Warbey for Blenden & Penhill ward in Ted Heath's ultra-conservative constituency of Old Bexley and Sidcup died just hours after the election was called. Instead of having a by-election for one candidate, it was agreed to postpone the election for all three ward candidates until June 25th. Bexley & Dartford Organiser, Colin Smith — one of the party's hardest working officers said that although the prospects of a high vote for the party in this very well-to-do area are not good, the party would ultimately benefit from standing in this kind of election since it lets people know that the party is serious — which means standing in any elections which come up. Anyone interested in lending a hand can contact Colin on 0374-454893.

E. MIDS ACTION!

Peterborough was the scene for a mass leafleting expedition by a combined East and West Midlands team to reach out to local folk, many of whom feel under siege. Peterborough is not the first place to come to mind when thinking of racial problems, but over the years, Peterborough has seen a frightening level of Asian racial attacks against whites. More than two-thousand leaflets were put out in this town which currently has no organised BNP group at all. But that could all change soon...

The Black Country Branch Committee and members of Black Country BNP — formerly the West Midlands National Democrats — wish to thank all of our BNP colleagues around the country for their tremendous support and encouragement. We have been overwhelmed by such an incredibly warm welcome and are more than happy with our decision to unite under the patriotic banner of the BNP.

Euro Election '99 Fund

Target £50,000
Total so far £5,852

The BNP is appealing for £50,000 to fight the European elections next year. The party will win TV broadcasting time and take the party's election address to 12 million voters — the biggest nationalist push since 1979. The party remains, of course, resolutely opposed to the EU. Because the fund has to raise its £50,000 target by next April, the party has to raise £1,000 per week. Locally and nationally it is possible. But for that to happen, you need to give, to give generously, to give often and to give now. The total raised last month was a pitiful £400 bringing the total from individuals to £4,393. BN would like to thank all those that stumped up. Those that didn't must do some soul searching. The enemies of Britain are only too ready to put their money where their mouths are. What about you? If the party's ambitious target is to be reached, everyone must examine their conscience and their wallet — it's time to give now! While individual donations were down on last month, incomplete figures coming from branches show £1,459 coming in to the fund — an excellent £1,000 coming from Redbridge branch. That makes the grand total £5,852.

HIGHLANDS GO FOR GROWTH!

The party's most northerly unit — H&I BNP held a very successful Day of Action when members supported by activists from Edinburgh, Dumbarton, Falkirk and Glasgow held a paper sale and mass leaflet in Inverness.

Ten copies of British Nationalist and British Countryman were sold in the main pedestrian precinct as well as handing out 300 'Buy British Beef' leaflets. The team received a fantastic response from local people some of whom worked or were married to people working in a local abattoir. One said it was good to see somebody speaking out on behalf of Britain's beleaguered beef industry before buying a copy of BC. Another took a bundle of leaflets to distribute in Fort William. The team was complimented several times for their polite manners, in stark contrast to the lefty element sometimes seen on TV. After the paper sale, the team made their way to the Dalneigh area of Inverness where just under 2,000 'Wake Up Scotland' and 'Defend British Fishermen' leaflets were delivered to local homes.

Membership in the area is at an all time high. That and the presence of go-ahead Organiser Kenneth Smith means that things can only get better!

In contrast with the overwhelmingly good response the BNP team received during the day, there were only two hostile responses. One from an Asian who claimed the party had no right to be in Inverness! And another from an SNP supporter who objected to the Union flag carried on the party's leaflets. Both were shown up by superior arguments and sent away with a flea in their ear.

Far right party intensifies its recruitment drive in the North

THE far right British National Party is planning to step up its activities in the North of Scotland.

On Saturday, supporters distributed BNP material in Inverness High Street and the Dalneigh area of the town and Kenneth Smith, organiser of the BNP's Highlands and Islands Unit, claimed leaflets on farming and fishing had been well received.

"Judging by the reaction, a lot of people were really pleased with what we had to say," he said, adding that the party's "Day of Action" in Inverness had been highly successful.

The group also distributed "Scotland Forward" leaflets outlining the BNP's wider policies, including British withdrawal from the European Union, an end to immigration and a start to repatriation, disbanding the Commonwealth and replacing it with a Commonwealth of "white states", restoring the death penalty, crushing the IRA "by all means necessary" and sacking "trendy" teachers.

After distributing leaflets, the party's members held a meeting in a local pub, but Mr Smith declined to reveal which premises had been used.

"We chose Dalneigh because it was an area we had responses from before," said Mr Smith.

The BNP claims that since it was re-formed last year, its Highlands and Islands group has now risen to an all time high membership. Mr Smith refused to be exact about how many members the party has in the Highlands and Islands, but says it is well into double figures.

However, Mr Smith did reveal that of the 10 people distributing BNP material in Inverness High Street, only six came from the Inverness and Ross-shire area.

Mr Smith claimed that the BNP, "support all people in Britain", but later amended that to all people of British stock, which does not include people born in this country.

"Just because you are born in a place doesn't make you a member of that race," he said. "I could be born in Egypt. That wouldn't make me Egyptian."

Highland Councillors Jimmy Thomson and Bill Smith, whose wards cover the Dalneigh area, said they had not heard of BNP material being distributed in the area.

Councillor Smith, who pointed out that he was no relation of Kenneth Smith, said: "I would have thought that if they were to target an area, then Dalneigh would be the least likely to be swayed. Any extremist group attempting to recruit in the area would certainly concern me, but I have no great difficulty about them approaching people in Dalneigh because people in Dalneigh are quite capable of dealing with them."

• Leader, page 7.

Above: extract from the Inverness Courier. The editorial said: 'What this party is preaching has no place in a just and tolerant society. How can any reasonable Briton subscribe to such extreme policies as, for example, an end to immigration and a start to repatriation, the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market and an end to overseas aid?'

What we stand for

- The establishment of a government of national unity that will put an end to nationally divisive party warfare; the return of leadership and statesmanship to British affairs.
- An end to immigration and a start to repatriation.
- British withdrawal from the European Union: trade with Europe where it suits us but no political ties, and no monetary union.
- The disbanding of the multi-racial Commonwealth and its replacement by a new Commonwealth of self-governing white states.
- British ownership and control of British industry and resources.
- Protection of British industry by the selective exclusion of foreign manufactured goods from the British market.
- An end to the financial swindle that causes inflation and slump, and its replacement by a sane and fair financial system that will give the people the purchasing power to buy the goods they produce.
- The subordination of the power of the City to the power of Government, and the harnessing of the City to the needs of British industry.
- The regeneration of British farming, with the object of achieving the maximum self-sufficiency in food; also the restoration of the fishing industry by protection of our traditional fishing grounds.
- A healthy environment for a healthy people — the protection of our countryside and an end to the architectural disfigurement of our towns and cities.
- Tougher treatment of criminals, including the return of the death penalty.
- A return to traditional methods of education, with stronger discipline in the classroom and the sacking of 'trendy' teachers.
- An alternative defence strategy: withdrawal from NATO; closure of all foreign military and air bases in Britain; British withdrawal from the war in former Yugoslavia, where no British interest is at stake; the bringing home of British forces from Germany; the strengthening of Britain's defences and a position of armed neutrality.
- An end to overseas aid and the allocation of the money saved to the financing of repatriation and greater help for the needy at home.
- The crushing of the IRA, the termination of the Anglo-Irish agreement and firm support for the loyalist majority in Northern Ireland.
- A return to healthy moral values aimed at strengthening the family and community.
